Drawn into Nature

Explore paintings by Georgia O'Keeffe and learn about her interest in nature, color, and abstraction. Then, experiment with different drawing techniques using soft pastels and conté crayon.

Workshops provide the opportunity to explore artists' thinking and studio practices. Taught by museum educators, each workshop includes a conversation in the galleries followed by a hands-on studio session. Family Workshops are designed for children (ages 8–11) and adults to participate in together.
